

KGCA Meeting Minutes
GotoMeeting
Oct 16, 2018

Present: Carol Ptak, Barbara Young, Katherine March, Mike Wells, Biff Rose

President Reports: Carol has been busy with her business, which takes her internationally.

Vice President Report: Katherine, reported on the danger of mushrooms in the yards at this time of year.

Secretary/Treasurer/Newsletter Editor: Barbara Young reported on the past account balance for the club, and mentioned that there had been no new correspondence for the club.

Old Business:

1. A discussion on coat on show dogs and the larger size of show dogs was held. It was determined that recent dogs in the ring were large in size compared to others in the ring, which brought up the breed standard on size. Coats were also discussed because of the soft-coated texture being represented on the Specials.

2. Bank balance: Sept 30, 2018 $1341.62

New Business:

1. A new newsletter was scheduled for January 2019 with possible articles on rolling a Griffon Coat, Mushrooms and their effects on dogs, and the Comfort of sleeping with dogs.

2. There was a report from Mike on the Barbeque competition he was in. He placed 14th in a large competition. He was suffering from a pinched nerve, from the dog show last weekend. He had to pull his dogs from the Sunday show because they got into a skunk. He used Dawn soap and Natures Miracle to dip the dogs that were sprayed.

3. Mike also reported on a new purebred breeding between his female "Pam" and Barbara's male "Flynn". This would be a purebred breeding with puppies due Oct 29th. One of the pups will be going to Brenda for her breeding program. Biff mentioned he had no pups at this time.

4. Mike mentioned that the President of the AWPGA had resigned due to business reasons and that they were looking for a new president.

5. The AKC Barn Hunt was discussed, with Carol and Katherine giving it high praise for the fun factor for dogs and people.

The meeting terminated at: 12:05

The next meeting was scheduled for Nov 20th at 11:00

Meeting adjourned
Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Young
